America's Most Extravagant Ice Cream Treats

Guacamole de Postre | Rosa Mexicano

If you look at this picture and see guacamole, then Rosa Mexicano Pastry Chef Jai Kendall has done his job. An August signature at all locations of this upscale contemporary Mexican chain, it features avocado-mint ice cream swirled through with white chocolate swirl and topped with strawberries. The "chips and salsa" on the side are actually passionfruit-chocolate sauce and cinnamon sugar buñuelos. Like real guacamole, it's prepared tableside.
