MEXICAN INDEPENDENCE DAY

September 14th - 16th

On September 16, 1810, Mexico's indigenous population launched the Mexican War of Independence against Spanish colonialists. The day is celebrated as Mexico's National Day of Independence.

CREPAS DE CAMARON

Crepes filled with shrimp, covered with chile pasilla sauce and sprinkled with cheese

CHILES EN NOGADA

Poblano chiles filled with picadillo of pork, aromatics, fruits and spices, topped with walnut crema and pomegranate seeds

¡VIVA MEXICO!

A refreshing Paloma with a hint of smoke and a subtle heat from our house made spicy chile tincture. The smoky mezcal, tequila and light spice is complimented by fresh citrus juices and grapefruit soda.

El Jimador blanco, Montelobos mezcal, ruby red grapefruit juice, lime, tres chile tincture, grapefruit soda, guajillo salt
